

Zechariah the Prophet

Supplement for the Time Alone with God as we begin to read through the Prophet Zechariah.

His name means "Yah Remembers" - Yah is short for Yahweh. The Holy Name of God.

He is a post-exilic prophet. Like Haggai and Malachi. A post-captivity prophet.

He came back from exile to Babylon with Zerubbabel and others.

Pre-exilic Prophets, prophesied before the exile to Babylon in 597 BC.

Exilic Prophets, prophesied during the exile as captives in Babylon.

Post-exilic Prophets, prophesied after the exile and the return to the land.

He prophesied during the reign of King Darius of Persia. Cyrus of Persia had conquered Babylon in 538

BC. He issued a decree that all of Babylon's exiles could return to their homelands and rebuild. Now

Darius is king of Persia (the year is 520BC).

He places much emphasis on the coming Messiah.

He describes his Eight Visions (1:7-6:8)

He also describes his Burdens (9-14).
